

ENERGY AUDITORS (COST ESTIMATORS)

What They Do Conduct energy assessments to identify energy efficiency improvement opportunities and offer recommendations for insulation upgrades. Explain incentives, loans, and tax credits for energy efficiency improvements.

Tasks

- Consult with clients, vendors, personnel in other departments or construction foremen to discuss and formulate estimates and resolve issues.
- Analyze blueprints and other documentation to prepare time, cost, materials, and labor estimates.
- Prepare estimates for use in selecting vendors or subcontractors.

Important Skills Needed

- Mathematics
- Reading Comprehension
- Critical Thinking

How Many Are There? 26,580 in May, 2007
Source: CA Employment Estimates. EDD/LMID

Median Annual Wages $62,828
Source: CA Occupational Employment Survey of Employers. EDD/LMID; 2008

NOTE: Energy Auditors are included in the broad occupational title of Cost Estimators. Occupational data represents Cost Estimators.